SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

Presiding Elder T. Y. Moore held his quarterly meeting last Sunday at the A. M. E. Church. The heavy downpour of rain in the morning kept a great many people from the morning services. He preached two great sermons during the day. On Monday night this week a splendid conference was held and excellent reports rendered by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hadden, and his corps of officers. A young lady said to possess Helen's beauty has come to board with Mr. and Mrs. James, in Hamburg, for an indefinite period. Mother and child are reported doing well. Dame rumor calls our attention to the nuptials of a certain Segunatchee Valley belle to a prince in the medical world in these parts. Congratulations. Mrs. P. Patton is on the sick list this week. Mrs. Ann Stephens lies in a precarious condition at her home out on Jasper pike. Miss Janie A. Lightfoot is out of this city this week on business. Presiding Elder T. Y. Moore was the guest of Mrs. William Bivens while here. Mrs. P. P. Jones, of Richard City, was seen in town shopping one day this week. Rev. W. S. Hight returned from Chattanooga this week. Arbor Day will be celebrated as usual by the public schools in these parts. It is known as Public Health Day, and Dr. W. J. Astrapp will make his usual tour, beginning at Richard City at 9 a. m. Friday, November 24th. Teachers should see the doctor and each arrange for his hour. Mr. Alex Staples is able to be out again after several days confinement to his room. Mr. Carrol Hawkins, after having sold a few barrels of his own make of sorghum molasses, has about one hundred gallons at his home to retail at 60 cents per gallon as long as it lasts. ### MCKENZIE NOTES.

The wedding bells are ringing. Perline Britt and Robert Rogers were quietly married at the bride's home last Sunday. Mamie Manley and Aaron Gilbert were also married at the bride's home Sunday evening. Mrs. Vera Ralston Greer, of Henry, spent the week end with relatives. We were glad to see Mrs. Blanch Nesbitt in town Sunday with friends and relatives. Mr. Britt, who has been ill for four weeks is reported convalescent. Mrs. Rainey has been quite sick. She is now better. Miss Pharisee Walls is able to be up again after a week's illness. Mrs. Stewart Cody is still very sick. Rev. Featherston preached his farewell sermon at the C. M. E. Church last Sunday night. Mrs. M. Pate lost her home last week by fire. The Carroll County Teachers' Association convened here last Saturday. The attendance was small but interest good. A cyclone passed through here Saturday night, uprooting trees, tearing down houses and unroofing quite a number of stores. Mr. George Walker was struck by flying timber and seriously injured.

We were glad to have Dr. Jones in our midst. A number of the public school pupils will render the play, "Hallowe'en and Thanksgiving Adventures," at the Court House, Thanksgiving, November 30th. "A live's play, full of enjoyment, showing the result of 'Lost Opportunities'."

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Miss Annie Lue Gorden, of Scumbstock avenue, has gone to St. Louis to visit her uncle, Mr. W. C. Gorden. The First Baptist Church members are delighted with their new pastor, Rev. Smith, who filled the pulpit last Sunday. Rev. Smith will move his family from Elizabeth Town, Ky., before the holidays. Rev. Albert Brooks, former pastor of St. Paul Church, is delighted with his new charge, Campbell Chapel, Pulaski. Prof. J. H. Kelly has returned from Memphis, where he went to attend the funeral of Mr. M. L. Clay. Prof. J. A. Henry, of Chattanooga, was here last Sunday, the guest of Prof. J. H. Kelly. A marriage that came as a surprise to the many friends of the bride was that of Miss Latta Miller to Mr. Mede Love at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Miller. Rev. J. S. Gilmore officiated. Mrs. Leah Anderson has returned to Chicago, after a stay of several weeks with friends here. Mrs. Maggie Ogletone has gone to Chicago for an indefinite stay. Rev. Miller has come to take charge of Bethel A. M. E. Church. Rev. Maury will go back to Sandy Hook, where he was stationed last year. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Logue are housekeeping on Bridge street. Little Marie Dodson, who has been seriously sick at the home of her parents, has recovered sufficiently to be in school again. News comes from the A. M. E. Church, Pulaski, that they received Rev. Brooks with open arms. Mr. and Mrs. Mead Love have gone to housekeeping on East End street. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson have moved to East Eighth street. One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was that of Miss Latta Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Miller, to Mr. Mede Johnson Tuesday night, November 7th, at their home on Tenth street. Leading the party were Mrs. Ben Logue and Mrs. John Wilkes, life-long friends of the bride, as matrons of honors. The bride was never fairer than in her wedding gown, leaning on the arm of her brother, Chauncey Depeu Miller. They were met at the altar by Mr. Johnson and his best man, Mr. Cinnard Wilkes. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Gilmore. After congratulations they went to their home, East End street. Only relatives and friends were present.

DICKSON NOTES.

The pastors of Dickson all filled their pulpits Sunday. Rev. M. Stokes, of Clarksville, was here. Rev. H. F. Smith left last week for his circuit in Guthrie, Ky. The young men of Dickson gave a party last Thursday night at the residence of Mrs. Rachel Tidwell, in honor of Miss Willie Hurt, of Nashville. Miss Willie Hurt and her mother, Mrs. Sophia Lewis, left Sunday for their home in Nashville. Dr. Miles and Miss Willie Hurt visited the Hendrix School, of which Mrs. Grimes is teacher. Both made interesting talks. Those who are sick are Mrs. Fannie Holbert, Mollie Kate, Wm. Cowan, Mr. Jesse Hannah, Genia Halbert and Alice Loyd. Sunday, November 12, 1911, the Allen Christian Endeavor was organized at the A. M. E. Church, with Mrs. Lena Dunn as president. The little folks showed much interest in the endeavor and Rev. J. F. Dean made an interesting talk along that line.

PULASKI NOTES.

Mr. Charley Potter and his sister, Miss Mattie Lee Potter, of Chicago, are here visiting their father, who has been quite ill. Their father is Mr. West Potter. Mrs. Sallie Will Hammons is here from Nashville visiting her sister, Annie Lou, and other relatives. The district school gave a very successful entertainment on last Friday night, the 10th, for the purpose of building a fence around their campus. In the space for news from this place in the last issue of the Globe we are very sorry that the name of Grand Master Fort was omitted by the writer in giving the names of those present at the Endowment Board meeting in Memphis a week ago. The genial Grand Master was present and presided, although his train from Oklahoma, the far West, was a few minutes late. Mr. Whitlock Fields, a well-known citizen of this city, died Wednesday, the 8th, and was buried on Tuesday by Dickerson Lodge No. 2994. Mr. Fields has been liberal to the cause of missions, though he has never openly confessed Christ. He has lived in this city for many years, and has many friends among both colored and white, and the most scrutinizing critic will admit that he was true to his convictions. He left a widow and no children, and the nice home he left and other assets will enable her to live quite comfortably. Rev. A. Brooks, the new pastor of Campbell's Chapel A. M. E. Church, preached a wonderful sermon Sunday, the 12th inst., to his congregation. The people here are well pleased with their new pastor. Mrs. Lou A. Holbert has returned from Nashville. Mrs. A. F. Morrell is preparing to open school at Bethel in a few days. Rev. D. Howard preached to his congregation at Pigeon's Roost Sunday. The new mail-carriers look natural on their beats in the town of Pulaski. Prof. Arthur Sherrell has bought a home on East Hill and will move to town in a few days. Rev. D. W. Benford has been assigned Aspen Hill Circuit and he will live in Pulaski while he is pastoring at Aspen Hill, which is only a few miles away. The people here will be very sorry to lose the citizenship of Rev. H. L. P. Jones, who will doubtless leave here some time in the new year, since he has been called to take charge of a fine church in the city of Nashville. Rev. Jones is a neat preacher and his new church should feel proud of him. The members and friends of the Beulah Baptist Church will give a great entertainment Saturday night, the 19th, for the benefit of their pastor, Rev. D. Howard. Miss Delphia Meredith is still sick under the treatment of Dr. Wm. A. Lewis. She is the victim of a fall received a few days ago. Miss Meredith resides with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Meredith, at 25 Spear street. Mrs. Mary Daly is sick but is some better at this writing. Mrs. Mary Jordan, of North End, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is out again. Mrs. Riley Dolphus, the mother of Mrs. Lula Mason and Mrs. Lizzie Suggs, is on the sick list, seriously ill. Mrs. Esther Bryant, the proprietor of the First Street Restaurant in the Turner Building, is sick. New Zion Baptist Church is without a pastor again. Rev. H. C. Cade, who once lived here, has been called to pastor the Baptist church at Lawrenceburg, Tenn. He writes that he is well pleased with his new charge. The friends of Rev. A. P. Gray, who once pastored here, were delighted to hear of his leading the delegation of the Tennessee Conference of his church. Rev. Gray has many friends here and they always like to hear of his success. Mayor Thos. E. Daly, the most popular and beloved mayor and citizen Pulaski has had for years, left this week for Baltimore, Md., where he goes in order to improve his health. The people here, regardless of color, are anxious to learn of his speedy recovery. If he has an enemy in town we have never heard of it. He has been mayor six years and declines to run again on account of ill health. The Social Union of the Big Harpeth Association will hold its second annual session with McNairy Hill Baptist Church, November 25, 26, 1911. Rev. M. Martin, pastor. Introductory sermon at 11:30 Saturday morning by Rev. A. Brooks.

Vaughn, of Twomey, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. George Dixon, Sunday. Miss Amanda A. Walker has returned home from Mayfield, after a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Albert Walker. The first Bible class of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church was taught by Miss R. B. Merriwether Sunday. Superintendent C. Whiteside gave an interesting lecture on the subject, "Belshazzar's Feast and Fate." Mr. J. H. Mayberry, of Shilp Bend, was the guest of Mr. Henry Walker Sunday. Rev. W. D. Wilson, pastor of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, came last Saturday. He was accompanied up town by Prof. M. L. Richerson and Mr. John Cathey. Rev. Wilson read for a Scripture lesson Sunday night the 13th chapter of Corinthians, from a part of the third verse he preached a soul-stirring sermon, after which a song was led by Mr. G. W. Miller, "On Jordan's stormy banks I stand," and an old-fashion handshaking took place, the greatest in the history of the church. Monday night at 7:30 the stewardess board met all the officers were re-elected and four new ones were added. The stewards and trustees all welcomed Rev. A. D. Wilson. Prof. W. L. Richerson, who has been teaching at this place, left Saturday for Oak, where he has received the office as president of Creek Siminolo University. Mr. Mack Gray is getting along nicely building his new home in East Centerville on Columbia avenue. H. Turner Crosby is preparing to have the best school exhibition ever had at Rocky Branch School. Mr. H. D. Gilbert has the best attendance ever had at Roberson Hill School.

CUNNINGHAM NOTES.

Rev. T. W. Pettis and Rev. Bournl are engaged in a revival at Calvin Row Baptist Church. Rev. J. Martin had quite a success in conducting the revival at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. ### BUYS MORE BANK STOCK.

Evidence of his profound belief that the South is going to make good, is shown by the fact that Mr. C. A. Dickson, of Buffalo, N. Y., is increasing his holdings in four of the leading financial institutions of the South, namely: The One Cent Savings Bank, The People's Savings Bank of Nashville, and the Solvent Savings Bank, of Memphis, and the Alabama Penny Savings Bank of Birmingham, Ala. Arrangement for the purchase of this stock was made through the Compiler of the National Negro Bank Directory, who resides in this city.

GATHERING THE HARVEST.

The revival services of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, which was in progress for just one week, closed Sunday night. Dr. Clark, the pastor, stated that while the meeting was closing early, he would no doubt open his spring rally with well-laid plans for his usual twenty-days' meetings, and while the number of additions to the church from this past revival was not as large as heretofore, the meeting was a splendid success.

Mrs. Humphrey Maddox left for Chattanooga Saturday after a three weeks' stay in this city.

Mr. J. D. Harris, formerly of Lebanon but now of East St. Louis, Ill., was here this week.
